uStream One

Two-way true wireless stereo

The centre of the range. True two-channel hi-fi at the price of a soundbar.

The uStream One runs a silk-dome tweeter and a magnesium alloy woofer in each cabinet, each with its own amplifier, for 50W RMS per channel. Optical and HDMI ARC inputs connect it straight to a television with no adapters, RCA inputs take a turntable or CD player, and Bluetooth 5.3 pairs the two speakers automatically the moment they are switched on.
